eased to the slim margin of a game and a half when the Cardinals took them over the jumps in the opener of the midsummer series between the two leading National League clubs here to-day. The score was 4 to 3. The Giants filled the bases with one out in the ninth, but were able to squeeze only one tally across, which fell a point short of tieing. The Carnow won five of their seven contests with New York this year.

Hornsby, with the season barely past the half-way mark, has accumulated twenty-four homers, and at that rate of speed he should hit the forty mark before the passing of the 1922 campect—it would put him well beyond the National League top mark, but Rogers does not need that many.
